
The Library of the 21st Century

Join your colleagues for a stimulating discussion about libraries, now and in the future, including student research needs and habits, online resources, hopes, dreams, fears...

facilitated by

Jan Zauha

Reference Librarian, Professor

Tim Donahue

Instruction & Outreach Librarian, Assistant Professor

Ritchie Boyd

*Educational Technology Swiss Army Knife
(aka "Web Scientist")*

Jeff Adams

Assistant Vice Provost for Undergraduate Education

- Explore pressing questions...
Does Wikipedia = Truth? Devil? Destruction of civilization as we know it?
Do books have a future?
- Generate cool ideas for the evolving library of the 21st century...
What would the library of your dreams do for you? How would it look?
- Learn shocking (or not so shocking) truths...
"I've used the library one time for finding something in four years."—Undergraduate in Engineering/Computer Science
"I LOVE libraries, but the last time I was actually in one was when I was waiting for a bus and went in to kill time."—Faculty, Education
"I enjoy the newsletters in the bathroom."—Graduate Student, Science/Math

Wednesday, March 4, 2009

Room 233 SUB (formerly 276)

Lunch Served: 11:45 a.m.

Discussion: 12:00-1:00 p.m.

Please RSVP to annea@montana.edu
by Monday, March 2, 2009

Looking for someone to work with you individually on teaching?

The Teaching Help Desk has faculty who are available for consultation on various topics such as course design, test development, grading strategies, and more. Contact Kim Boehler at tlc@montana.edu or 994-5572.